

You're Invited: A Tea Party at Bella Terra

On Saturday, March 17th we are hosting a charitable tea party at Bella Terra and have a few seats left! Our guest of honor will be Rhys Bowen, New York Times bestselling author. The event is from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Bella Terra, which gives you plenty of time later to celebrate St. Patrick's Day!!

Please email me asap (hopefully today or tomorrow, as we need to plan for food/beverage) if you are interested in attending at mary@bella-terra.moseke.com. The cost is $60.00 and goes to a wonderful charitable organization, Family to Family. Once I receive your email, I will provide further details. For more information about Family to Family, click here.

We had this tea 2 years ago and it was wonderful! Here are some photos of the event. Having tea and discussing books? What could be better!
